

1) Nominee:

Company Name	Klifovet AG
Company Address	Geyerspergerstr. 27
Postcode	80689 München
Tel.	089-58008220

Award Category (name of the category you are entering):

“Best supporting role”

Questions concerning the Nominee:

1) What has been this organization`s most significant achievement during the year?,
Coordinating and finishing a multi-center study which had started as a one center-study and made slow progress, and then was extended to a multicenter study by the Nominee.

2) Give details of what this organization has accomplished this year in terms of:

a) Range of services provided to the animal health industry:

Performing of clinical studies according to Veterinary GCP in different target species, including reporting and getting published.

b) Consistently meeting project deadlines or exceeding quality standards of work:

Project deadlines have been met, additionally extending and coordinating the study in the multi-center design, study report was accepted positively by the sponsor.

c) Design and introduction of new service aimed at the animal health industry, addressing an unmet need

Organizing first seminar for veterinary clinical studies in Oct. 2005

d) Consistently providing value for money.

Individually tailored services required by the customer are consistently provided.

e) Demonstrating a proactive approach in delivering services to the industry and/or other stakeholder groups:.

- Organization of first seminar on clinical veterinary studies (see above), proposing and contacting additional study centres, if course of a study is prolonged. Always proposing solutions when problems appear.

- Sharing expertise in the conduct of veterinary clinical studies all over Europe, including organising seminars as well as speaking at conferences.